MODERATOR'S ADDRESS

General Moderator, Moderators, fellow ministers, presidents of the various organizations, officers, members, ladies and gentlemen. In the name of God I bring you greetings.

At this season of the year the world seems to be in a thankful attitude. We can't but help think of our dear old Pilgrim fathers who celebrated their first Thanksgiving in America over 300 years ago by holding a meeting and giving praises to God. November happens to be the month in which our Conference convenes, and it is very timely that we too should do as our Pilgrim fathers did—give thanks to our Maker who has spared us to meet at another Annual Conference. The Grim Reaper has called the Pilgrim fathers to their resting places, but the work which they did lives on. Let us strive like them to do our best and leave the world a better place in which to live than we found it.

We know the purposes of our meeting. Let us work together for the good of all. The tongue is the keyboard of the soul. Let us bridle our tongues. It can be sweeter than honey or bitterer than gall. It is balm and consolation; it is sharper than a serpent's tooth.

We have made rapid progress since our church began. Our dear church Pilgrim fathers have accomplished their tasks, their lives have been an inspiration and their memory a benediction. Let us continue to play our parts well and improve our programs each year.

Let us strive to have 100 per cent budgets. If we expect to compete with present day demands we must have what the other denominations are offering their youths. Launch out and never say fail. Success belongs to those who work.

In closing may I repeat this short poem from which our theme was taken: Be strong We are not here to play, to dream, to drift, We have hard work to do, and loads to lift, Shun not the struggle—face it, 'tis God's gift. Be strong! Say not, the days are evil, Who's to blame? And fold the hands and say—oh shame! Stand up, speak out, and bravely, in God's name. Be strong! It matters not how deep entrenched the wrong, How hard the battle goes, the day how long, Faint not—fight on, Tomorrow comes the song.

DEAR CO-WORKERS: LET THIS BE YOUR DAILY THOUGHT

What Have You Done Today?

You shall do so much in the years to come,
 But what have you done today?
 You shall give your gold in a princely sum,
 But what did you give today?
 You shall lift the heart and dry the tear,
 You shall plant a hope in the place of fear,
 You shall speak the words of love and cheer,
 But what did you speak today?
 You shall be so kind in the after while,
 How kind have you been today?
 You shall bring to each lonely life a smile,
 But what did you bring today?
 You shall give to truth a grander birth,
 And to steadfast faith a deeper worth,
 You shall feed the hungering souls of earth,
 But whom did you feed today?

YOUR SECRETARY.
